New From CU Business Group

TransactExpress - Payment Solutions for Businesses

Credit unions that offer advanced payment products for their business members strengthen relationships and attract new members. Savvy business owners and managers are looking for faster access to their funds. Electronic payment options provide this tremendous added value. As the trusted financial provider for your business members, are you providing the services they need to stay competitive?

TransactExpress is the straightforward way to offer advanced electronic payment solutions to businesses and merchant members and give them the tools they need to expand their payment acceptance and disbursement methods.

TransactExpress enables your members to:

- Accept online payments via a branded payments Web page
- Initiate payments as either ACH or card transactions
- Accept one-time payments over the phone or in person
- Place customers on recurring payment schedules
- Break large balances into scheduled installment payments with interest or fees
- Utilize a full-featured funds disbursement system to pay vendors, contractors, or initiate payroll for employees.
